

Miranda Flury, MBA

As the President of Hawkeye Strategies, Miranda lives out her purpose: Helping to turn light bulbs on. She works with boards and executives all over the world to support their governance and strategy needs and in turn, she helps their people and communities.

Her vast experience as a professional facilitator, international speaker, and expert educator for boards enables her to provide a seamless and engaging experience that is tailored to each audience. Miranda has supported cooperative, private, and non-profit boards, executives, regulators, and advocacy groups. She has spoken at conferences including the World Council of Credit Unions (WOCCU), National Credit Union Management Association (NCUMA) in the USA, Swoboda Research Centre in the United Kingdom, the British Columbia Financial Services Authority Director's Forum, and the Canadian Credit Union Association (CCUA). She offers her clients the knowledge gleaned from specialized expertise, tempered with the wisdom of wide-ranging experience from diverse industries.

Miranda completed her undergraduate degree from the University of Guelph, a Master's level degree from Memorial University of Newfoundland, and an Executive MBA from the University of Fredericton. She has also earned a designation in Advanced Cooperative Governance. Miranda has held board director roles on cooperative, regulatory, and private boards and has been a director on one of the largest and most complicated cooperatives in North America, Federated Cooperatives Limited. In her spare time, Miranda is a mentor with Futurpreneur where she helps new entrepreneurs successfully start their businesses. She is also a CrossFit enthusiast... but don't get her started on this topic, she'll have a hard time stopping!
