

BIO • CAROL C. MCMULLEN

As a business leader, and Board member of public, private, and not-for-profit companies, Carol McMullen's career has been focused on helping organizations and the people who lead them to make creative and thoughtful decisions, targeting the best use of their institutional resources.

Carol has held business roles as Boston Managing Director of Leadership, Strategy, and Citizenship for Slalom, a high-growth global business/technology consulting firm; President, Eastern Wealth Management for Eastern Bank; Head of Global Sales for the Investment Management Group at Thompson Financial; Head of Global Research and Chief Investment Officer of Global Growth Equities at Putnam Investments; Co-Head of US Equities at Baring; and Head of Technology Research for Citicorp Investment Management.

Carol has extensive corporate Board experience, including her current service as Independent Director at AB Funds (NYSE: AB) where she serves as Chair, Audit Committee. Carol served as an Independent Director and Chair at Butcher Box, a privately-owned $500 million revenue ecommerce leader in clean protein. Carol has a long history of affiliation with and Board work for the not-for-profit sector. She has served as Board Chair at Newton-Wellesley Hospital and was a Board member of the Investment Committee at MGB, and on the Partners Healthcare (MGB) Board. She currently serves on the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Community Collaborative Governance Team and on the Board of Skylark, a six-time Grammy-nominated acapella ensemble.

Carol is a graduate of Wellesley College and holds an MBA from Harvard Business School. She has four married children, and six grandchildren – more to come!