

Maggie Chu

Maggie Chu is an independent board director of ITT Inc., having joined the board effective October 1, 2024. Immediately upon her election, she was appointed to the Compensation and Human Capital Committee, reinforcing her role in overseeing strategic human capital matters.

She brings to the board deep expertise in global human resources and corporate communications, acquired through progressive leadership roles. Since 2021, she has served as Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer at Littelfuse, Inc., where she leads HR and communications functions company-wide. Before that, she held the position of Segment Human Resources Director at Caterpillar from 2018 to 2021, supporting the $20+ billion Energy & Transportation segment and Corporate Services organization. Earlier in her career, she spent approximately 14 years in various global HR leadership roles at General Electric, spanning its industrial businesses, including in its Lighting, Power and Oil & Gas divisions.

Maggie's background includes both strong technical and human resources foundations. Born in China, she completed undergraduate and graduate degrees in Electrical Engineering at Zhejiang University and Quality Management at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, prior to relocating to the U.S. in 2001. She also holds a Master of Arts in Human Resources with a minor in statistics from the University of Minnesota.
