

Sharon Castelino is a highly-regarded business leader, advisor and mentor with more than 20 years of board experience and 30 years in senior executive roles in financial services and related sectors. She serves on public, private, and non-profit boards in industries including fintech, healthcare, artificial intelligence, asset management, private equity, investment banking, and edtech. Her governance experience includes service as Chair and as a member of Audit, Compensation, Governance, Risk, M&A, and Investment committees. Previously, she held senior roles at major Canadian banks, was an executive at a fintech that went public in 2017, and led Canada's largest public-private partnership for housing attainability.

Sharon has delivered dozens of keynotes on various topics, including ESG, Economic Reconciliation, leadership, the Canadian economy, housing sector, cryptoassets and the regulatory landscape.

She holds a Master of Laws from Osgoode Hall Law School and an MBA with Distinction (Ivey Scholar) from the Ivey Business School.