

Bindu Cudjoe

Bindu Cudjoe is a seasoned executive, lawyer, and board leader with 25 years of experience across law firms, financial institutions, and governance roles. She has served as Chief Legal Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Compliance Officer and Corporate Secretary at leading Canadian banks and has led strategy for legal, regulatory, ethics, privacy, and inclusion functions. Bindu is Principal & Strategic Advisor to Bindustries Consulting Inc., bringing her experiences as a law firm partner, banking industry executive and award-winning chief legal officer and chief inclusion officer to her consulting practice.

Recognized as Law Department Leader of the Year (2024) by Canadian Lawyer Magazine, and with awards for innovation, inclusion & diversity and legal operations, Bindu is widely known for her transformational leadership and direct, pragmatic advice. She has served on more than 10 boards and is a frequent speaker on risk, governance, innovation, and inclusion.

Bindu holds a B.Comm. from the University of Calgary and an LL.B. from the University of Toronto, where she was Class Valedictorian. She is also a proud mother of three and an active community leader.