

TORONTO CONVERSATION ON BOARD DIVERSITY

Hazel Claxton

Hazel Claxton is an accomplished director who brings insights to the boardroom from a 35-year career in executive, talent, and corporate restructuring roles, and significant governance experience. She served as Chief HR Officer with Morneau Shepell from 2013 to 2018. Prior to that, Hazel spent 29 years at PwC Canada, where she progressed to hold several leadership roles. These included Canadian Leadership Group member, Human Capital Leader, and senior partner within the Corporate Advisory and Restructuring Group, an area she practiced in for 20 years, working with companies and their stakeholders to optimize value and manage risks. Currently, Hazel serves on the boards of TELUS, Allied Properties REIT, Bank of Montreal, University Pension Plan Ontario, and Unity Health Toronto. Previously, she served on the boards of Queen's University, St. Michael's Hospital, and Shaw Festival Theatre. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) from Queen's University, the ICD.D designation, and is also a CPA, CA.